LB 76A

further closing? He waives closing. The question is the adoption of the General Affairs Committee confirmation report on Robert Logsdon. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, please.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 1 nay, Madam President, on the adoption of the confirmation report.

SENATOR CROSBY: The report is adopted. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, the next item of business this morning, LB 76A. Senator Smith, I have no amendments to that bill at this time.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Madam President, I move the advancement of LB 76A to E & R for engrossing.

SENATOR CROSBY: You've heard the motion to advance LB 76A to E & R for engrossing. All in favor say aye. Opposed no. It is advanced. Senator Stuhr, did you have a point of personal privilege that you wanted to bring up?

SENATOR STUHR: Yes, thank you, Senator Crosby and members of the Legislature. You have received on your desk a booklet, called "Clues to Rural Community Survival". This is presented to you by the co-directors, Vickie Luther and Mylan Wahl of the Heartland Center for Leadership Development. And I do serve as a board member of this group. And I think that you will find this very helpful. It actually can apply to also rural areas. It is used and has been used throughout the country, but the Heartland Center does provide workshops and leadership programs to help rural communities. So I thought that you might find this helpful. Many of the case studies that you'll find in the book are done from Nebraska cities. So thank you very much.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. Mr. Clerk, do you have items?

CLERK: Just one, Madam President. Confirmation report from the Education Committee. That's all that I have. (Legislative
